
Highest-pT tail bins (740-760, 780-800 GeV) have very low raw statistics (3 and 6 NLO events respectively) and are omitted from the log-scale line where their central value is <=0; ratio points are correspondingly absent there.